

Identity

Current as of 18 July 2019

Lesson Plan

Objective:

Assessment questions:

Instructional Aids: N/A

Foundational Competences: Teamwork, Perseverance, Results Focused, Flexibility, Self-Control, Leadership, Precision, Information Seeking and Fosters Innovation.

References: AFH-1 and CJCSI 3405-01

Lesson Outline

MP 1. Introduction a. Motivation / Attention Question: for the last 3 months you learned/been asked about the Air Force identity, but has anyone asked you about your IDENTITY? b. Objective: Discuss the importance of recognizing that your values will contribute to build your Airman identity	10 Minutes
MP 1 - Personal Values a. Guided Discussion • Positive values • Negative values	15 Minutes
MP 2. Air Force identity a. What was your perspective of the Air Force before you joined, why the Air Force and not the Army, Navy, Marines, etc.? b. Heritage video/story c. Now that you are an Airman, what is your perspective of the Air Force identity as now?
MP 3 - Where your personal values fit into the Airman identity? a. On a scale 1 -10 ...1 been "my identity doesn't correlate with the AF identity".... 10 been "my identity is the AF identity"	15 Minutes
MP 4. Conclusion a. Circle back to Airmanship definition and explain how identity relates to the definition	5 Minutes

Attention / Motivation:

Question: for the last 3 months you learned/been asked about the Air Force identity, but has anyone asked you about your IDENTITY?

Anticipated Response:

Responses will vary

Objective: Discuss the importance of recognizing that your values will contribute to build your Airman identity

Assessment question: Can the Airman explain how his personal values will help him develop his identity as an Airman?

MP1: Personal Values

Guided Discussion - Help Airmen identify their values and ask them to relate their answer/values to a personal story. Encourage them to talk about good and bad experiences. How and why they compromised their values before the Air Force and how and why their values helped them make the right decision.

Anticipated Responses:

- Responses will vary

Transition:

MP2: Air Force Identity

Guided Discussion: Ask the following questions

- a. What was your perspective of the Air Force before you joined, why the Air Force and not the Army, Navy, Marines, etc.?

Anticipated Responses:

- Responses will vary
- b. Heritage video/story: Using Air Force Heritage today video - Oath (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2OzPWY5VDJU>) or your story (if no internet/computer available) explain your perspective and how you (facilitator) identify with the Air Force identity / Airmanship

No anticipated responses.

- c. Now that you are an Airman, what is your perspective of the Air Force identity now?

Anticipated Responses:

- Responses will vary

Transition: Air Force identity and Airman are one of the same

MP3: Where your personal values fit into the Airman identity?

- a. On a scale 1 -10 ...1 been “my identity doesn’t correlate with the Air Force/Airman identity”.... 10 been “my identity is the Air Force/Airman identity”

Anticipated Responses:

- Responses will vary

- b. Facilitate discussion to make them understand that there is no right or wrong answer and guide them to find ways and tools to move their scale up

Anticipated Responses:

- Responses will vary

MP4: Conclusion

Circle back to Airmanship definition and explain how identity relates to the Airmanship definition.