

Service

Current as of 18 July 2019

Lesson Plan

Objective: While participating in a guided discussion, each airman will discuss the virtues of service before self.

Assessment Questions: I am comfortable discussing how service contributes to Airmanship.

Audio/Visual Aid: Display w/internet capability

Foundational Competencies: Teamwork, Develops People, Communication, Perseverance, Service Mindset, Flexibility, Leadership, Initiative, Influence and Resilience.

References: AFH-1, AFH 36-2618, AFI 1-1, AF DOCTRINE Vol 2

Lesson Outline

MP 1. Introduction a. Attention Step b. Overview	10 Minutes
MP 2. Service Guided Discussion a. Define service before self b. Examples of service before self c. Examples of duty d. Examples of loyalty e. Examples of respect	35 Minutes
MP 3. Conclusion a. Summary b. Remotivation	5 Minutes

Attention: Kick off guided discussion with video (American Airman—Max Impact). Upon completion of the video, ask the students to comment on it. Does this video inspire them? Does it re-affirm their service obligation?

Overview: Today we are going to talk about Service.

MP2: Service Guided Discussion

LOQ: What do you think of when you hear the term?
Service before self??

Anticipated Response

(Student responses will vary)

FUQ: What makes you ready to put your professional? Duties ahead of your personal desires?

Anticipated Responses
(Student responses will vary)

LOQ: What are some examples of service before self that you Have witnessed?

Anticipated Responses
(Student responses will vary)

- Rope duty
- CQ
- PT lead

FUQ: What are some examples of self before service that you have witnessed?

Anticipated Responses:

- Faking illness
- Constant excuses to avoid tasks

LOQ: Give an example of duty as it relates to service before self.

Anticipated Responses:
(Student responses will vary)

- Volunteer for CQ on holiday/weekend

LOQ: Give an example of loyalty as it relates to service before self.

Anticipated Responses:
(Student responses will vary)

- Support even though you disagree

LOQ: Give an example of respect as it relates to service before self.

Anticipated Responses:
(Student responses will vary)

- Value others opinion even if you disagree

FINAL QUESTION: How does service contribute to the identity of Airmanship?

MP3: Conclusion

SUMMARY: Today we discussed service before self, shared examples of both service before self and self before service, and looked at duty, loyalty, and respect as they relate to service before self.

REMOTIVATION: To close, I want to share a quote by the 20th Chief of Staff of the Air Force, General Mark Welsh, retired. “Treating every airman with dignity and respect must be at the heart of who we are and how we operate. It isn’t a “tag” line; it’s the core of everything we stand for as a service. Everyone in our Air Force should feel respected. Everyone should feel valued. Every single person around you brings something to the fight that you don’t. Each of them is critically important to mission success, and they deserve to be treated that way.”