

The Refuge is located in building 706, the corner of Macon and 7th Street, across from the dorms and next to MPF and SARC Office

The Refuge

Airman Ministry Center – Bldg 706
Ministry to all Airmen – Soldiers – Sailors – Marines (E1-E4)

“Your safe haven and home away from home”

Spiritually Sound

Physically Fit

Socially Secure

Professionally Prepared

Refuge Hours:
Mon-Thu 1730 – 2300
Fri 1730 – 0300
Sat 1730 – 0300
Sun 1730 – 2300

What does the Refuge have to offer you?

- A large kitchen where you can cook your own meals.
- Wi-Fi and video games
- Movie room
- Pool Table
- A chance to develop your leadership skills outside of the work center
- Volunteer opportunities
- FREE Wednesday night dinners! Every Wednesday night at 1800 is a different meal for Single Airman.

TALKING PAPER ON THE ROBINS AFB AIRMEN MINISTRY CENTER “REFUGE”

- PURPOSE: Communicate the value and impact of the Airmen Ministry Center (Refuge)
- SPIRITUALITY: What gives me PURPOSE, MEANING and VALUE in my life?
 - Mission: To inspire spiritual resiliency, faith and help Airmen develop healthy relationships, build moral character and value service before self within an authentic community of peers
 - Method: We pursue these goals by providing the following opportunities
 - Routine Hours of Operation granting access to Refuge throughout week
 - Weekly Wednesday Meal Night providing free high quality food and socialization
 - Routine Airmen Outings to inspire healthy socialization with peers and community
 - Refuge on the Road events providing the Airmen Ministry Center Experience out in the wider base environment.
 - Spiritual Resiliency Events
 - Community Service Opportunities
 - Future Coffee bar addition: Coffee, Latte, Hot Cocoa, Tea, and Smoothie machines
 - E-1/ E-4 Airmen will enjoy FREE beverages at coffee bar before, during lunch, and after work
- LEADERSHIP: Airmen Leadership Team (Airmen leading Airmen)
 - Experience and exposure to base community operational organizational processes
 - Training and practice in professional writing and interoffice communication
 - Practice coordinating with base agencies and community partners
 - Training in process improvement
 - Program management skills
- IMPACT: Meaningfully and purposefully impacting the lives of our Airmen
 - Sixteen Below The Zone award winners
 - Two Leaders Encouraging Airmen Development Program recipients
 - 31% participation from dorm population
 - High Community Response: 20 base and community organizations involved
 - Direct Connection to Needs Assessment
 - Work Stress
 - Depression
 - Spiritual Fitness
- CONCLUSION: Providing our junior Airmen ready access to quality spiritual and social means of community life and self-care renews and sustains them for today and tomorrow.